Demo day is encouraged but not mandatory for the competition.

Rules & Regulations

- Eligibility Requirements: Any middle school or high school student may apply. For groups, a minimum of 50% of the band members must be Middle School or High School students. Priority acceptance will be given to Township residents.
- Charter Day is a family event. Musician/Group names and song lyrics cannot contain obscenities. Groups that incite crowd violence will be disqualified.
- Equipment: The following equipment will be provided by Wavelength Audio Video: PA main Speakers, floor monitors, and microphones. Musicians are responsible for providing the following backline equipment: guitar amplifiers, bass amplifiers, drum set, and any other musical instrumentation or recorded music. All equipment must be dropped off between 10AM & 11AM. You can access the drop off area from Rankin Avenue. There will be no vehicular access to the area after 11AM.
- Musicians will have up to 15 minutes in between performances to get ready on stage and up to 20 minutes total performance time. Starting late wastes your performance time!
- All musicians on this application must be present for the announcement of winners in order to receive a prize.
- Charter Day Idol is a smoke free, alcohol free and drug free event.

Registration Deadline: Friday, April 29, 2016

Singers/Bands will be confirmed by May 9th and a full schedule will be released shortly thereafter.
