Thank You

Susan Kevelson and Sandra Their, the Entertainment Book Fundraiser co-chairs, would like to thank the teachers for helping to distribute the Entertainment Books, all of the families who purchased books to support the LCS PTO and Mrs. Debbie Tracey and Ms. Gerry Burns for helping with the organization of the fundraiser.

The LCS PTO would like to thank Diane Brady and Marlise Alkhas and the entire Caring Community Committee for providing refreshments at the Back to School nights and for working to support our families in need.

LCS World Cereal Food Drive

Fill a Bucket and Donate to the Somerset County Food Bank from October 11th-October 22nd to support its' Operation Backpack Program. Each grade has a World Cereal Team Bucket in the school lobby. The team with the most items will be the World Cereal Champions! For a detailed list of needed food items, please see the October 15th Friday folder.

Red Ribbon Week

Red Ribbon Week is October 25th-October 29th. On Wednesday, October 27th, healthy snacks will be provided to the students in their classrooms. On Thursday, October 28th, a health fair will be conducted during each lunch period. Materials and goodies will be provided to promote healthy habits. Messages will be posted throughout school all week to remind students of the importance of healthy habits.
