Tom McKie has been entertaining audiences of all kinds since the early 1990's. His work has been seen in an array of venues from Walt Disney World's Magic Kingdom to New York's Apollo Theatre. Tom has also choreographed for productions for Sesame Street Live, "Dance Jam" at New Jersey's Performing Arts Center, Towson University's Dance Team in Maryland, and the annual Ladies of Hip-Hop Festival in Philadelphia, just to name a few.

While Tom chooses not to perform frequently, he has a strong history of training young dancers who have grown to go on to great jobs in the dance industry. Tom teaches master classes and workshops throughout the East Coast, as well as, internationally (Europe and Canada).

Tom wishes to keep traveling the world, spreading knowledge of the Hip-Hop culture to anyone willing to learn it. His will to continue learning and growing has pushed Tom forward into becoming more than just a messenger of the dance and culture, but a manifestation of the true essence of the culture itself. In Tom's master class, you will learn an eclectic Hip-Hop Dance!
